This is a special issue which contains some information about Morehead's Trio Center. SGA's Campus Improvement Committee wants everyone to know that there's always someone here on campus he or she can relate to.

The Trio Program, directed by Dr. Wanda Bigham, offers many programs to those students and faculty who are in need of them. Trio consists of 3 major programs, thus giving it its name. On the high school level, Trio has Upper Bound, a college preparatory for high school students and also the Educational Talent Search program, which helps high school students with exceptional academic or artistic talents get into college. The third program offered here at MSU, and probably most important, is the Special Services Program, which offers counseling and tutoring for all students and faculty. Trio Center is located in Allie Young and is open from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday-Friday. Appointments are not necessary.

All of the following programs are a part of Trio's Special Services and are completely FREE and AVAILABLE to ALL STUDENTS AND FACULTY:

1. Study Skills
2. Career Planning
3. Academic Advising
4. Tutoring
5. Reading Classes
6. Writing Lab Assistance for Composition
7. Personal Counseling
8. Information

Trio even has a counselor specially trained to help with Drug and Alcohol abuse. All of Trio's counselors are professionals and any report of your visit to them is strictly confidential.

REMEMBER: Trio is the University's Counseling Service and its office is located at 220 Allie Young. Call 783-3361 or 783-3362 or just stop by anytime from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. If you need help with anything that's troubling you, maybe Trio can help.- Give them the chance.
